

DIGO BIKAS INSTITUTE (DBI)

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Focal Person, Province no. 1
Duty Station:	DBI Office, Biratnagar
Line Manager:	Program Officer, Kathmandu

BACKGROUND:

Digo Bikas Institute (DBI) is a research and advocacy organization committed to promote ecological sustainability and social equity at policy and community level. Based in Kathmandu, DBI believes that Nepal (and the rest of the world) can develop meaningfully by identifying and applying alternative ways of meeting human needs without harming nature and fellow human beings.

VISION

Digo Bikas Institute envisions an ecologically sound, socially just and prosperous society, and that it will continue to be so for future generations.

MISSION

Digo Bikas Institute's mission is to undertake research and action to stimulate informed discussion and strategic thought to advance alternative and local solutions to global problems.

JOB PURPOSE:

The position of Focal Person will be overall responsible to assist in the implementation of the activities and serve as the focal point of the organization in the province no 1. It includes overseeing the organization's activities and programs are met with the vision and mission of the organization.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

Program and Project responsibilities:

- Provide technical support to the community, grassroots groups and partners at the districts and provincial level ensuring the quality of the activities.
- In coordination with the Program Officer , support preparation and implementation of yearly activities of DBI.
- Assist in preparing program reports for DBI requirements and contribute to quarterly progress reports and annual organizational reports.
- Assist Program Officer in managing and monitoring DBI project budgets within the province, and work with the Finance and Admin officer in developing accurate financial reports.
- Prepare content and use social media to update the program activities and reach out to relevant stakeholders.
- Report timely to the Program officer on the progress of activities/tasks assigned and inform on any issues potentially detrimental to the organization.
- Coordinate with local governments and relevant governmental authorities for smooth operations of the programs.
- Ensure that all the planned activities are implemented for Provincial no.1.
- Prepare and submit activity progress reports and maintain consistency and quality of reports.
- Organize and lead several grassroot level sensitizing events in the municipal as well as in provincial level.
- Develop and lead campaigns on climate justice issues.

Organizational Development and Team Tasks:

- Contribute to the implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of DBI strategic plan.
- Contribute to other shared program tasks of DBI, such as joint advocacy planning and development, information scanning, visitor orientation, publication outputs, promotion of DBI, and others.
- Contribute to mid-year, annual and long-term review of strategic planning.
- Contribute to and participate in organization-wide tasks, such as staff meetings, staff capacity development activities, annual retreat, evaluation and planning meeting, staff representation at Annual General Meetings, intern/volunteer/visitor orientation, and others.

Responsibility Area : Other Tasks

- Other responsibilities as assigned by Line Manager.

Qualifications and Key Competencies:

- Bachelor's Degree in Environmental Science, natural resource management and relevant subjects.
- Experience in team management, volunteer mobilization, research and analysis, team building, and result-oriented work.
- Experience/engagement in organizing training, campaigning, activism, facilitation of workshops, and other capacity-building activities
- Well-versed in English and Nepali language (both spoken and written) and have good computer knowledge
- Good interpersonal, research and analytical skills
- Experience of working with youth organizations and grassroots groups and organizations will be additionally valuable