

Terms of Reference (ToR)

For Nepali Dubbing of the Documentary “The Economics of Happiness”

Background

“The Economics of Happiness” is an award-winning 68-minute documentary produced by Local Futures. The film explores the social, ecological, and economic impacts of globalization while highlighting localization as a pathway toward resilient communities. The film has been translated into multiple languages, including Nepali.

We possess the raw documentary files and an existing Nepali translation/subtitle script. We now seek qualified media houses, dubbing studios, or individual professionals to professionally finalize and dub the documentary into high-quality Nepali language.

Objective

To produce a professionally dubbed Nepali version of the documentary suitable for public screenings, educational outreach, digital platforms, and advocacy purposes.

Scope of Work

The selected firm/studio/company shall undertake the following tasks:

1) Review and Correction of Nepali Translation

- Review the existing Nepali translated script/subtitle text.
- Correct grammar, spelling, sentence flow, terminology, and contextual meaning.
- Ensure the language is natural, clear, audience-friendly, and aligned with the tone of the documentary.
- Maintain accuracy of original English meaning.

2) Voice Assessment and Casting Plan

- Carefully review the documentary.
- Identify total number of voice artists required based on speakers, narration style, gender, tone, and character distinctions.
- Recommend voice allocation plan (main narrator, male/female speakers, supporting voices, etc.).
- Submit final voice artist list for approval before recording.

3) Voice Recording and Dubbing

- Arrange voice artists.
- Record clean studio-quality Nepali voice tracks.
- Synchronize dubbing with visuals and speaking pace.
- Maintain emotional tone, and authenticity of original documentary.

4) Editing, Mixing and Final Output

- Mix dubbed audio with background music/effects.
- Deliver broadcast-ready final master file.

5. Deliverables

The selected party shall submit:

1. Final corrected Nepali script (editable format)
2. Voice artist plan with number of artists used
3. Final dubbed documentary in HD format (MP4/MOV)
4. Separate mastered Nepali audio files
5. Project source files

6. Duration

The assignment shall be completed within 4 working days from signing of contract and receipt of all source materials. June 26, Friday is the deadline for the submission.

7. Required Qualifications

Interested applicants should demonstrate:

- Proven experience in documentary dubbing/voice production
- Access to professional recording studio and editing facilities
- Strong Nepali language editing capacity
- Experience with synchronization and post-production
- Portfolio of previous dubbing/media work preferred

8. Proposal Submission Requirements

Interested parties must submit:

1. Company/individual profile
2. Relevant experience and portfolio links
3. Proposed methodology/workplan
4. Proposed timeline
5. Financial quotation (lump sum, inclusive of all costs)
6. Contact details

9. Selection Criteria

Proposals will be evaluated based on:

- Relevant experience and technical quality
- Understanding of assignment
- Quality of previous work
- Proposed timeline
- Cost effectiveness

10. Ownership and Confidentiality

All raw files, scripts, dubbed outputs, and final products shall remain the property of the commissioning organization. Materials may not be reused or shared without written permission.

11. Submission Deadline

Interested applicants must submit proposals by June 19 to June 22 .